The discovery of a small metal box leads to the uncovering of a family story, shrouded in silence for more than 60 years. Woven through their censored letters, diary entries, and haiku poetry, is the true story of a young Japanese American couple whose shattered dreams and forsaken loyalties lead them to renounce their American citizenship while held in separate prison camps during World War II. They struggle to prove their innocence and fight deportation during a time of wartime hysteria and racial profiling.

> Northern California Emmy Award, Outstanding Achievement Historical/Cultural Program, 2006

> Silver Telly Award, Outstanding Documentary Program, 2006

> Best Director Award (documentary), New York International Independent Film and Video Festival, 2005

> Grand Festival Award, Berkeley Video & Film Festival, 2005

Children of the Camps captures the experiences of six Americans of Japanese ancestry who were confined as innocent children to internment camps by the U.S. government during World War II. The film vividly portrays their personal journey to heal the deep wounds they suffered from this experience.

> Northern California Emmy Nomination, Cultural Affairs Program, 1999/2000

> National PBS broadcast, 1999
